- (d) Direct recruitment shall be made in the case of following categories:—
 - (a) Clerks.
 - (b) Mapper:

Provided that in the case of Clerks, the Class IV Government Employees who fulfil the minimum qualifications for the post will also be considered for promotion as clerks.

PART III—CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

8. Probation of Members of the Service.—Members of the service who are appointed against permanent vacancies shall, on appointment to any posts specified in Annexure-A remain on probation for a period of two years.

Explanation.—(i) Approved officiating service shall be reckoned as period spent on probation, but no member who is officiating in any appointment shall on the completion of the probationary period prescribed, be confirmed until he/she is appointed against a permanent vacancy.

(ii) If the work or conduct of any member during his/her period of probation is, in the opinion of the appointing authority, not satisfactory, the appointing authority may dispense with his/her service or revert him/her to his/her former post if he/she has been appointed to that post otherwise than by direct recruitment.

(iii) On the completion of the period of probation of any member, the appointing authority prescribed in rule 4 may confirm such member in his/her appointment or if his/her work or conduct has in the opinion of the appointing authority not been satisfactory, may dispense with his/her service or revert him/her to his/her former post, if he/she has been appointed otherwise, than by direct appointment or may extend the period of probation and thereafter pass such orders on the expiry of the extended period of probation as it could have passed on the expiry of probation of the first period of probation:

Provided always that the total period of probation including extension, if any, shall not exceed double the normal period.

9. Scale of Pay etc. of the Service.—The grades of pay of each Class of Service are mentioned in the Annexure-A to these rules subject to their revision from time to time.

10. Discipline.—In respect of discipline, punishment and appeals the members of the service shall be governed by the provisions of Civil Service and Civil Service (Conduct) Rule enforced by the Government and as amended from time to time.

11. Seniority of Members of Service.—(i) Persons appointed in a substantive or officiating capacity to a grade prior to the issue of these rules shall retain the relative seniority already assigned to them or such seniority as may hereafter be assigned to them under the existing orders applicable to their cases and shall en bloc be seniority to all others in that grade.

Explanation.—For the purpose of these rules:—

- (a) Persons who are confirmed retrospectively with effect from a date earlier than the issue of these rules; and
- (b) persons appointed on probation to a permanent post substantively vacant in a grade prior to the issue of these rules; shall be considered to be permanent officials of the grade.

(ii) Subject to the provision of sub-paragraph (iii) below permanent officials of each grade shall rank senior to persons who are officiating in that grade.

(iii) Direct Recruitment.—Notwithstanding the provisions of rule (ii) above, the relative seniority of all direct recruits shall be determined by the order of merit in which they are selected for such appointment on the recommendation of selection authority, persons appointed as a result of an earlier selection being senior to those appointed as a result of a subsequent selection:

Provided that where persons recruited initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their appointment, seniority shall follow the orders of confirmation and not the original order of merit:

Provided further that a person who does not join within the prescribed period shall lose his/her seniority according to the selection and shall rank in the seniority list next to the person who joined earlier:

Provided further that he/she shall not lose his/her seniority if the fact of his/her joining later was caused by circumstances beyond his/her control and for the reasons to be recorded in writing, the Appointing Authority is satisfied that this was so.

(iv) Promotees.—(a) The relative seniority of persons promoted to the various grades in the service shall be determined in the order of the selection for such promotions:

Provided that where persons promoted initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their promotion, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit.

(b) Where promotions to a grade are made from more than one grade, the eligible persons shall be arranged in separate lists in the order of their relative seniority in their respective grades. Thereafter, the Departmental Promotion Committee shall select persons for promotion from each list upto the prescribed quota and arrange all the candidates selected from different lists in a consolidated order of merit, which will determine the seniority of the persons on promotion to the higher grade.

(v) Relative seniority of direct recruits and promotees.—The relative seniority of direct recruits and of promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies between direct recruits and promotees which shall be based on the quotas of vacancies reserved for direct recruitments and promotion respectively in the recruitment rules.

Explanatory Memorandum—Sub-rule (iv).—Where promotions are made on the basis of selection by Departmental Promotion Committee the seniority of such promotees shall be in the order in which they are recommended for such promotion by the Committee. Where promotions are made on the basis of seniority subject to the rejection of the unfit, the seniority of persons considered fit for promotion at the same time shall be the same as the relative seniority in the lower grade from which they are promoted. Where however, a person is considered as unfit for promotion and is superseded by a junior, such person shall not if he is subsequently found suitable and promoted take seniority in the higher grade over the junior persons who had superseded him or her;

Sub-Rule (v).—A roster should be maintained based on the reservation for direct recruitment and promotion in the recruitment rules. Appointments should be made in accordance with this roster and seniority determined accordingly.

Illustration.—Where 75% of the vacancies are reserved for promotion and 25% for direct recruitment, each direct recruit shall be ranked in seniority below 3 promotees.

Where the quotas are 50% each, every direct recruit shall be ranked below a promotee. If for any reason a direct recruit or a promotee ceases to hold the appointment in the grade, the seniority list shall to be re-arranged merely for the purpose of ensuring the proportion referred to above.

12. Leave and pension etc.—In respect of leave, pension and other (cognate) matters not specifically mentioned in these rules, the members of the service shall be governed by the rules, prescribed by Himachal Pradesh Government as amended from time to time, unless one has already exercised option otherwise.

13. Training and Examination etc.—The member of service shall have to qualify examinations or to undergo training as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time for any class of posts.

14. Other conditions of Services.—In respect of conditions of service other than those covered by those rules, members of the service shall be governed by the condition of service under the rules framed and the orders issued by the Government of Himachal Pradesh from time to time.

15. Repeal.—The rules promulgated vide the Himachal Pradesh Revenue Department, notification No. R-24-481/58, dated the 29th March, 1961, are hereby repealed;

Provided that such repeal shall not effect the previous operations of the said rules or anything done or any action taken thereunder.

16. Relaxation.—Where the Government is of the opinion that in the case of existing employees before the promulgation of the rules it is necessary or expedient to do so, it may by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing/relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of person/post.

- (v) no women whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage shall be eligible for appointment to post in the service:

Provided that the Government may, if satisfied that there are specific grounds for doing so, exempt any person from the operation of rules in clauses (iv) and (v) above; and

(3) Must not be less than 18 years and not more than 27 years of age on the date of appointment:

Provided that minimum and maximum age limit as prescribed may be relaxed in accordance with the provisions of the Himachal Pradesh Government Civil Service Rules or other relevant rules:

Provided further that the maximum age limit may be relaxed in the case of Scheduled Castes/ Tribes candidates, displaced persons and other special categories in accordance with the orders/instructions issued by the Government from time to time.

6. Educational and professional qualifications of candidates.—The educational and professional qualifications of candidates for appointments to the various posts in the service shall be as specified in annexures I and II of these rules.

7. Method of recruitment.—Posts in the service shall be filled in either by promotion or by direct recruitment as has been specified in annexure I and II to these rules.

8. Special provision of reservation of posts for Scheduled Castes/Tribes and released Indian Armed Forces Personnel and backward classes.—Nothing in these rules shall affect reservations and other concession required to be provided for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and other special categories of persons including released Indian Armed Forces/Backward Classes in accordance with the orders by the State Government from time to time in this regard:

Provided that the minimum qualifications prescribed for the posts in the service are satisfied by them. A roster shall be maintained for this purpose as required under standing instructions of the Government on the subject. In any one recruitment year the total number of vacancies reserved for scheduled castes/tribes/ex-servicemen or released Indian Armed Forces Personnel and backward classes, taken together shall not exceed 50 per cent of the total number of vacancies to be filled up in the service.

9. Appointment by promotion/direct recruitment as the case may be.—Appointments to the service under rule 7 shall be made by the appointing authority on the recommendations of the Departmental Promotion Committee constituted by the Government from time to time, or on the recommendations of the Himachal Pradesh Public Service Commission, as the case may be.

PART III—CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

10. Probation of members of the service.—(a) Members of the service who are appointed against permanent vacancies shall, on appointment to a post in the service, remain on probation for a period of two years in respect of direct recruits/promotees as indicated in annexure I and II to these rules subject to such further extension for a period not exceeding one year as specified in annexure I and II to these rules by the competent authority.

(b) Any period, after appointment to the post in the service, spent on deputation on a corresponding or a higher post shall count towards period of probation fixed under sub-rule (a) above.

Explanation.—(i) Approved officiating service shall be taken as period spent on probation but no member who is officiating in an appointment shall on completion of the probationary period prescribed, be confirmed until he is appointed against a permanent post in the service;

(ii) If the work or conduct of any member during his period of probation is, in the opinion of the appointing authority, not satisfactory, the appointing authority may dispense with his services or revert him to his former post if he has been appointed to that post otherwise than by direct recruitment. The appointing authority may extend the period of probation and thereafter pass such orders on the expiry of period of probation; provided always that the total period of probation including extension, if any, shall not exceed four years.

11. Confirmation of members of service.—On completion of the period of probation the authority competent to make appointment to the post in the service as prescribed in rule 4, may confirm members of service in the posts, on the recommendations of the Departmental Promotion Committee constituted for the purpose from time to time.

Explanation.—For the purpose of these rules persons who are confirmed retrospectively with effect from a date earlier than the issue of these rules shall be considered to be permanent employees of the grade.

12. Pay scales.—Members of the service shall be entitled to the pay scales as given in annexure I & II to these rules, subject to their revision by the Government from time to time.

13. Discipline.—In respect of discipline, punishment and appeals, the members of service shall be governed by the provisions of rules which are made by the Government or made applicable by the Government in this behalf from time to time.

14. Seniority of member of service.—(1) Persons appointed in a substantive/officiating capacity to a grade prior to the issue of these rules, shall retain the relative seniority already assigned to them or such seniorities may thereafter be assigned to them under the existing orders applicable to their cases and shall be senior to all others in that grade.

(2) Subject to the provision of sub-rule (3) below, permanent officers/officials of each grade shall rank senior to persons who are officiating in that grade.

(3) Direct recruits.—Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-rule (2) above, the relative seniority of all direct recruits shall be determined by the order of merit in which they are selected for such appointments, on the recommendations of the selecting authority, persons appointed as a result of earlier selection being senior to those appointed as a result of subsequent selection:

Provided that where persons recruited initially on a temporary basis or confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their appointment, seniority shall follow the orders of confirmation and not the original order of merit:

Provided further that a person who does not join within the specified period shall lose his seniority according to the select list and shall rank in the seniority next to the person who joined earlier:

Provided further that he shall not lose his seniority if the fact of his joining later was caused by the circumstances beyond his control and if the appointing authority is satisfied that this was so.

(4) Promotees.—(i) The relative seniority of persons promoted to the various grades shall be determined in the order of their selection for such promotion:

Provided that where persons promoted initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different than the order of merit indicated at the time of their promotion, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit.

(ii) Where promotions to a grade are made from more than one grade, the eligible persons shall be arranged in separate list in the order of their relative seniority, in their respective grades; thereafter the Departmental Promotion Committee shall select persons for promotion from each list, on the basis of seniority subject to the rejection of unfit, and shall arrange all the candidates selected from different list(s) in a consolidated form of merit (Select List) according to prescribed percentage for each grade. This merit/selection will determine the seniority of the persons on promotion to the higher grade.

(5) Relative seniority of direct recruits and promotees.—The relative seniority of direct recruits and promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies between direct recruits and promotees which shall be based on the quotas of vacancies reserved for direct recruitment and promotion respectively, as provided in these rules.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

Sub-rule 4 (1).—Where promotions are made on the basis of selection by a Departmental Promotion Committee, the seniority of such promotees shall be in the order in which they are recommended for such promotion by the Committee. Where promotions are made on the basis of seniority subject to the rejection of unfit, the seniority of persons considered fit for promotion, at the same time, shall be the same as the relative seniority in lower grade from which they are promoted. Where, however, person is considered as unfit for promotion and is superseded by a junior, such person shall not, if he is subsequently found suitable and promoted, take seniority in the higher grade over the junior person who had superseded him.

Sub-rule (5).—A roster shall be maintained, based on the reservations for direct recruitment and promotion, as provided in the recruitment and promotion rules. Appointments shall be made in accordance with this roster and seniority be determined accordingly.

ILLUSTRATION

Where 75% of the vacancies are reserved for promotion and 25% for direct recruitment each direct recruit shall be ranked in seniority below three promotees and where 90% of the posts in the service are to be filled up by direct recruitment and 10% from amongst, the junior officers/official each promotee shall be ranked in seniority below 9 direct recruits. If for any reasons, a direct recruit or a promotee ceases to hold the appointment in the grade, the seniority list shall not be rearranged merely for purpose of ensuring the proportion referred to above.

15. Leave and pension.—In respect of leave, pension and other (cognate) matters not specifically mentioned in these rules, the members of service shall be governed by the Rules/Instructions/Executive orders as are made applicable by the Government from time to time.

16. Relaxation of Rules etc.—Where the Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient to do so, it may by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing relax any of the provisions of these rules with regard to any class or category of persons/posts.

ANNEXURE 'A'

TRAVELLING ALLOWANCE & DEARNESS ALLOWANCE TO THE NON-OFFICIAL MEMBERS

1. Travelling Allowance (I)—Journey by rail.—The non-official members will be treated at par with the Government servants of the First Grade and will be entitled to a single fare of the class of accommodation actually used but not exceeding the fare to which the Government servant of the First Grade are normally entitled, i. e. accommodation of the highest class, by whatever name it may be called provided on the railway by which the journey is performed excluding air condition accommodation plus an allowance for incidental expenses vide S. R. 36 at the rate of 35 paise per every 10 Kilometres or part thereof if the journey exceeds 5 Kilometres entitled to one daily allowance at the ordinary rate for every 24 hours of railway journey or part thereof. However, the non-official member who is a Member of Vidhan Sabha will be governed for this purpose by the same terms & conditions and rates as are applicable to him when attends a session of the Assembly.

(II) Journey by road.—(a) In respect of journey by road the non-official member who is also a Member of Vidhan Sabha will be entitled to mileage allowance at the same rate and on the same condition as are applicable to him as Member Vidhan Sabha, to attend the session.

(b) The Members other than M. L. As. will be entitled to Mileage Allowance for journey by road as under:—

2. In respect of journeys by road between places not connected by rail, a member will be entitled to road mileage admissible to an official of the First Grade under the rules and at the rates as are applicable to the employees of the Himachal Pradesh Government.

In a case where journey between two places connected by rail is performed by road, rail being the ordinary mode of travelling the road mileage will be regulated as under:—

(a) when a journey is performed by taking a single seat in a public conveyance, he will be entitled to actual fare paid for a seat in a public conveyance plus incidental admissible as for journey by rail or the lower rate of road mileage limited to rail mileage whichever is less;

(b) when the journey is performed otherwise the higher rate of road mileage but limited to rail mileage will apply.

3. Daily Allowance.—(a) The non-official member who is also a member of Vidhan Sabha will be entitled to a daily allowance for each day of the meeting at the same rate, and on the same conditions as are applicable to them as member of Vidhan Sabha to attend the session.

(b) The non-official members other than Members of Vidhan Sabha will be entitled to daily allowance for each day of the meeting at the highest rate admissible to a Government servant of the First Grade for the respective locality.

In addition to the daily allowance for the day(s) of the meeting, a member shall also be entitled to daily allowance for halt on tour at an outstation in connection with affairs of the Committee as under:—

(i) Halt upto six hours	Nil.
(ii) Halt exceeding 6 hours.	Half daily allowance.
(ii) Halt exceeding 12 hours but not exceeding 24 hours	Full daily allowance
(iv) Halt exceeding twenty four hours.	One daily allowance for every 24 hours of halt or fraction of 24 hours at the end of half daily allowance will be calculated as indicated above.

4. Daily allowance will be subject to the usual condition laid down in supplementary Rule 73 as amended from time to time.

5. Conveyance Allowance.—A non-official members resident at a place where the meeting of the committee is held will not be entitled to travelling and daily allowances on the scales indicated above, but will be allowed only the actual cost of conveyance hired subject to a maximum of Rs. 15.00 per day. Before the claim is actually paid, the Controlling officer should verify the claim and satisfy himself, after obtaining such details as may be considered necessary, that the actual expenditure was not less than the amount claimed. In cases, he is not satisfied with the details, he may at his discretion limit the conveyance allowance to road mileage.

If such a member uses his own car, he will be granted mileage allowance at the rates admissible to officials of the First Grade subject to a maximum of Rs. 15.00 per day.

6. The travelling and daily allowances will be admissible to a member on production of a certificate by him to the effect that he has not drawn any travelling or daily allowance for the same journey and halts from an other Government source.

7. The non-official members will be eligible for travelling allowance for the journeys actually performed in connection with the meetings of the Committee from and to the place of their permanent residence to be named in advance. If any member performs a journey from a place other than the place of his permanent residence, to attend a meeting of the Committee or returns to the place other than the place of his permanent residence after the termination of the meeting, travelling allowance shall be worked out on the basis of the distance actually travelled or the distance between place of permanent residence and the venue of the meeting whichever is less.

8. The non-official member who is a Member of Vidhan Sabha, will not be entitled to daily allowance in connection with this assignment, when the Vidhan Sabha or the Vidhan Sabha Committee on which the member is serving, is in Session, as he will be drawing his daily allowance under the salaries and Allowances of Members of the Legislative Assembly (Himachal Pradesh) Act, 1971 from the Vidhan Sabha. However, if he certifies that he was prevented from attending the Session of the house of Vidhan Sabha Committee and did not draw any daily allowance from the Vidhan Sabha, they would be entitled to daily allowance at the rate as admissible to them as M. L. A.

9. The provision of Rule 4.17 and 6.1 of Himachal Pradesh Treasury Rules will apply mutatis mutandis in the case of overpayment made on account of Travelling Allowance to non-official members.

10. The Vidhan Sabha Member will also not draw Travelling Allowance and Dearness Allowance including conveyance allowance which will disqualify him from Vidhan Sabha.

C. M. CHATURVEDI,
Secretary.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF HIMACHAL PRADESH AND DELHI ADMINISTRATION FOR DECLARING FREE ZONE FOR THE UNRESTRICTED MOVEMENT OF GOODS VEHICLES BETWEEN THE TWO STATES

- Whereas it is expedient in view of the rapid economic development of the country to encourage un-restricted operation of goods vehicles between the two-states, it is decided in the public interest to enter into reciprocal agreement between Himachal Pradesh and Delhi.
- This agreement shall come into force w.e.f. 1-12-1973 and shall cover all motorable roads lying in the two States.
- This agreement shall be valid for five years in the first instance and may be extended from time to time by mutual agreement. Countersignatures shall be done annually. Either party may, however, revoke the agreement after issuing three month's notice.

- The Transport Authorities of the two States shall issue any number of public carrier's route permits valid for the territory of the other State and recommend countersignatures. The fee for the grant of countersignatures shall be charged on annual basis by the Transport authority according to the nature of route permit.
- No goods shall be picked-up or set-down between any two points lying wholly within the jurisdiction of the reciprocating State.
- Taxation:
 - There shall be single Poing Motor Venicles Taxation in respect of goods vehicles covered under this agreement.
 - There shall be no exemption from payment of goods tax or any other tax or fee leviable under any other law or rule of the State concerned as the case may be, in respect of goods vehicles entering either State.

General:

Each State will accord recognition to the Tax Tokens, Registration Certificates, Licences, Insurance Certificates, Certificates of Fitness etc., in respect of goods vehicles which ply in pursuance of this agreement. This agreement shall not affect all previous agreements.
